THE RED CROSS STAMP VENDERS

One Hundred Ladies Start Out
Tomorrow on a Worthy
Labor.

The ladies with the Red Cross Christmas stamps will be abroad in the city tomorrow morning. There will be one hundred ladies, with five hundred thousand stamps. The stamps are to be sold at a cent each, in blocks of from five to any number. It is expected by the ladies that all of the stamps will be disposed of well within the six days to be devoted to the sale. A number of the gentlemen who have been active in the Red Cross organization will be in the background during the campaign, to do some of the heavy work for the ladies, but the real effort is to be by the fair ones.

Honolulu will be doing no more than its share in absorbing the half million stamps. A small percentage of the gross proceeds goes to the national organization, of which President Taft is the chief officer. All of the remainder goes to the relief of tuberculosis victims here, to care and to work of prevention.

The stamps are to be attached to any letter or parcel sent through the mails, and, as well, for city delivery. They pay no postage, however.

Here is the list of the one hundred ladies who will go into the field this week in the great service of reducing the fearful ravages of the "White Plague":

Mesdames Carl du Roi, R. F. Lange, A. E. Murphy, C. T. Wilder, Frederick Klamp, William Winters, Armin Haneberg, Clinton Ballentyne and Emil Waterman; Miss Sarah Lucas, Miss Magoon and Mr. G. P. Wilder.

Mesdames Walter Hoffmann, J. R. Hornberger, J. J. Belser, E. M. Watson, C. W. Ashford, J. J. Lord, J. C. Cohen, J. M. Riggs, Walter Combs, W. Monaghan, James Morgan, H. Bicknell, G. Falke, W. L. Howard, Ella Wight, Ellison, Adele Dreier.

Mesdames S. A. Baldwin and C. Olson; Miss Agnes Wickstrum, Miss Muther, Miss Edith Kopke, Miss Esther Kopke, Miss Harriet Young, Miss Emma Ballentyne, Miss Marie Ballentyne and Dorothy Wood.

Mesdames E. A. Mott-Smith, W. W. Thayer; Miss Lilian Paty, Miss Margaret McIntyre and Miss Madge McCandless; Mesdames F. T. P. Waterhouse and E. E. Paxton.

Mesdames H. H. Williams, L. C. Ables, L. Abrams, C. S. Crane, Curtis, James Bicknell, E. A. Jacobson, W. W. Harris, H. E. Webster, Fred Wright, A. H. Tarleton, J. W. Gilmore, G. W. R. King.

Mesdames Arthur Wall and J. D. Dougherty, Miss Grace Robertson, Mrs. C. B. High, Miss Irene Dickson, Miss L. De Nike, Miss Beatrice Castle, Miss Vera Damon, Miss Alice Roth, Miss Ada Rhodes and Mrs. P. C. Smith.

BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW'S PRAYER WEEK

In accordance with the understanding reached at a conference of representatives of several lay Brotherhoods held last February in Pittsburgh, the local chapters of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew have arranged the following program for the week of prayer which commences today. The addresses will be delivered by the cathedral clergy. All members of the Brotherhood are expected to be present, and all others interested are cordially invited to attend all of these services:

Sunday, November 28, 8:30 a. m., corporate communion at the Seamen's Institute; Monday, November 29, 7:30 p. m., intercessory prayer and address in St. Andrew's cathedral; Tuesday, November 30 (St. Andrew's Day), 7:00 a. m., holy communion in St. Andrew's cathedral; 8:00 p. m., evening prayer and address in St. Andrew's cathedral; Wednesday, December 1, 7:30 p. m., evening prayer and address in St. Andrew's cathedral; Thursday, December 2, 7:00 a. m., holy communion, St. Andrew's cathedral; Friday, December 3, 7:30 p. m., evening prayer and address, St. Andrew's cathedral; Saturday, December 4, 7:30 p. m., annual meeting and election of officers of the Honolulu Local Assembly of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew's in the Davies Memorial Hall.

There is nothing off-color about the quality of the pianos now being sold by the Thayer Piano Company, on Hotel street, opposite the Young. Arrangements may be made for easy payments, and the terms are so satisfactory that there seems no reason why the child of a man with an ordinary income should not learn music in his home.

Pearl Harbor, the Base.

The President has shown sound judgment in deciding to make our strong point of defense on the Pacific at Pearl Harbor, says the Army and Navy Journal. It is not wise to spread congressional dribbles over too large an extent of territory. If, in the event of war, a foreigner should attempt to take possession of the Philippines he would only weaken his forces by division, and he could not hold that territory if the result of the war were against him, and he could get it anyhow if he wanted it and were successful. We should have a strong garrison in Hawaii, and every effort should be made to convert it into an impregnable position at the earliest possible date. No happier fate could attend our soldiers ordered on duty beyond the United States than to be assigned to the Territory of Hawaii in preference to the Philippines, and there is no position more essential to the defense of our Pacific coast than Honolulu.

ELKS' MEMORIAL DAY SUNDAY NEXT

The local lodge of Elks is preparing for an unusually elaborate and impressive celebration of Elks' Memorial Day, which occurs this year on December 5—a week from today. The exercises will be held in the Hawaiian Opera-house, and invitations will be out within the next day or two.

As usual, the music on this occasion will be one of the most prominent features. Besides a number of the best vocalists in the Territory who have volunteered their services, there will probably be a number of selections rendered by a double male quartet; while the Honolulu Concert Orchestra,
